

First Cook/ Sous Chef (Squamish)

Are you looking for an adventure paired with an aspiring work experience? An opportunity to work in a fun and vibrant environment, with people who are passionate about the outdoors and good food? Evans Lake is hiring a First Cook for our upcoming season, at our camp in Squamish. This is a great opportunity to learn, live and work, while providing delicious meals for large groups of 40 - 120 people. This could be a great step forward in expanding your culinary career, as we cater events of all sizes, from kid's camps to weddings to corporate groups.

GENERAL DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

- Help lead a small team cooking for summer camp, weddings, school groups and adult retreats.
- Act as kitchen lead in the Chef's absence, including days off and vacation days.
- Assist in food ordering and inventory.
- Maintain kitchen cleanliness and hygiene standards.

REQUIREMENTS

- A positive attitude and a love for food/kitchen life.
- Clear criminal records check upon hire, with vulnerable sector search.
- Food Safe: Level 1 certificate.
- Banquet, catering, buffet or batch cooking experience for large groups.
- 3+ years food service experience. 1 year leadership experience.
- Own transport to Evans Lake if not living at camp, as we are not accessible by public transportation.

ASSETS

- Food Safe: Level 2 certificate.
- Experience working with special diets/ allergy awareness.
- Previous experience in a supervisory role.
- Experience in a camp setting is an advantage (note: we are not a remote/oil camp)

POSITION DETAILS

- Competitive Wage: $23 - $28/ hour, based on experience/education.
- Contract, full-time position (40 hours/ week) from early April to end of October.
- Private accommodation included, in shared building, with meals available when groups onsite.
